

Lee Purkin Simpson is Past President of Louis Brier Home and Hospital and Past President of Louis Brier Foundation. Upon graduating from UBC with a MScN, she spent the next 18 years between clinical practice and teaching at UBC. She then consulted with both Health Care and Non-profit organizations. She has been involved with both Jewish and secular organizations including Congregation Beth Israel, Hebrew Free Loan, Talmud Torah, L'Chaim DayCare, and committees for the City of Vancouver.

Lee is married to Bernie Simpson and has three children and a wonderful new grandchild.

November 2008