

Max Pinsky is a lawyer with over 25 years of practice experience, mainly in the corporate and securities areas. He has been a principal in several successful businesses in diverse fields including environmental engineering, oil and gas and real estate.

Max has served on the boards of Vancouver Talmud Torah, the Vancouver Holocaust Center Society for Education and Remembrance and The Canadian Cystic Fibrosis Foundation (Lower Mainland). He has been co-chair of the Vancouver Second Generation Group and a member of the Chart Access Task Force, B.C. Childrens' and Womens' Hospital.

Max is married to Leona and they have four children.