

Tracy Penner

Tracy is a Landscape Architect self employed since 1987 with many years of design and project management experience and experience collaborating with Architects and Engineers. Has served on the Board of the BI and on it's re-development committee. Has worked for the City of Vancouver Planning and Development and is a former Parks Board employee. Was the creative director for the Van Dusen Flower and Garden show from 1996 to 2001.

June 2010